

Zohar Productions Presents
An Oasis for Women To
Relax, Refresh and Rejuvenate

The Red Tent

The Red Tent is an entertaining and inspiring women's program created by nationally recognized dancer and instructor Laura LeRoy. Ms. LeRoy, also known as Zohar, is founder and president of Zohar Productions, Inc. an award-winning production company specializing in Arabian Nights themed events coast to coast.

The art of Middle Eastern dance with live drumming will give participants a body/mind/spirit workout while enhancing their grace and sensuality. This holistic "Playshop" incorporates mesmerizing music from the Middle East with yogic warm-ups, meditative flowing movements, vibrant hip shimmies and core (belly) exercises for empowerment. The Red Tent program is guaranteed to be a stress-busting, playful, energizing and bonding experience for all who attend. Included with the program is a performance by Zohar which incorporates veils, finger cymbals, and audience participation.

Program Suggestions: Ideal for resort and spa guests, sales meeting, conference, seminar and convention attendees, spousal programs, bridal & baby showers, henna parties, sweet 16's, reunions and women's associations. Zohar draws upon her 25 years experience to tailor the program to each group's needs. This program is suggested for groups of ten to thirty women but can accommodate larger groups.
